THE QUALITY OF AIRWAY MANAGEMENT

28th February and 1st March 2025

Dubrovnik Hotel, Zagreb, Croatia

FOURTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Event ID EMT41917

COMPLIANT with Medtech Europe

WELCOME

Dear colleagues, guests and airway friends,

It is our great honour and pleasure to address you on behalf of the Croatian Society of Difficult Airway Management of the Croatian Medical Association (CMA-CSDAM) and to welcome you to the 5th Croatian Congress of Airway Management with International Participation, which will be held on 28th February and 1st March 2025, at the Dubrovnik Hotel, in Zagreb, Croatia.

The CMA-CSDAM is a national medical society founded in 2011 with the aim of educating about the application of knowledge and techniques of airway management. So far, the Society has organized four successful congresses on airway management in 2012, 2015, 2018 and 2022. We are glad that we managed to maintain the continuity of this expert meeting.

Airway management includes a series of medical procedures targeting to maintain or perform ventilation and breathing, which is applicable in various clinical situations, for example during resuscitation, general anaesthesia, surgical procedures, intensive treatment and various diagnostic procedures on or near the airway. Therefore, we are regathering health workers from various medical professions who, in their daily work, regularly or occasionally encounter the airway management and possibly difficult airway management. The topic of this congress is "The Quality of Airway Management". The development of techniques and technologies in the past decades has contributed to significant innovations and changes in the airway management, which certainly affect the quality of the airway management. We believe that the congress is an opportune moment for an exchange of opinions and a critical analysis of the extent to which we provide quality airway management today and how we can further improve the airway management in the future.

The scientific and professional programme is intended for doctors, nurses and technicians and health associates in anaesthesiology, dental medicine, infective disease medicine, intensive care medicine, internal medicine, outpatient and hospital emergency medicine, thyroid surgery, speech and language pathology, maxillofacial surgery, neurology, oncology and radiotherapy, otorhinolaryngology and head and neck surgery, paediatrics, pulmonology, resuscitation, thoracic surgery and others interested. Active interaction between lecturers and participants in lectures, oral presentations, e-posters and workshops will provide each participant with a complete experience of the airway within and outside the perspective of their own medical profession. The exhibition part of the congress will additionally be an excellent place to get acquainted with the latest technological and pharmacological achievements and products in the field of airway visualization and management.

We hope that our interdisciplinary congress will spark your interest in becoming and/or remaining an airway friend and in joining us in Zagreb.

Welcome!

Assist. Prof. Tatjana Goranović, MD, PhD
